

Sarvanaman Vidya Mandir

Academic Year 2009-10

AN ENDLESS ENDEAVOUR

Second Quarterly Newsletter

9th OCT 2009

H.D.H. Hariprasad Swamiji paid a cherished visit to Sarvanaman Vidya Mandir on 21st September '09 and blessed the school fraternity. In his saintly address to all his Bhulkus, P.P. Swamiji emphasised the significance of making honest efforts towards one's venture as the only way to achieve the goal in life. He advised children to work sincerely so as to secure the happiness and satisfaction of their parents and teachers.

A candid approach to studies and an utmost devotion to vocation is what 'education with spiritual modesty' means to us at this school. The Divine vision of P.P. Swamiji enables us to serve all the stakeholders. Here is a panorama of activities pursued in the second quarter of the current academic year.

CELEBRATIONS

Independence Day

The school celebrated the 63rd Independence Day on 15th August. The Managing Trustee of the Yogi Divine Society, P. Vithaldas Patel (Phuaji) presided over the Independence Day ceremony.

Teachers' Day

Paying reverence to Gurus and Guides forms the rich tradition and cultural heritage of India. 5th September, the Teachers' Day, was observed with fervour at a dignified ceremony. Educationist Mr. R.V. Patel, The Managing Trustee of the School Mr. Khandu Patel, and P. Sahaj Didi graced the function.

Diksha Din of P.P. Swamiji

H.D.H. Hariprasad Swamiji began the quintessential endeavor of enlightening his faithful followers way back in the year 1965 when he took on the Bhagvati Diksha. A vibrant ceremony was organized to commemorate this spiritual and historic event. Some memorable moments exhibiting Swamiji's sacrifice, love and affection for mankind and His Divine work aimed at spiritual uplift of the entire society were put on view through audio-visual clippings.

CO-CURRICULARS

Ensuring all-round development of students is one of the prime aims specified on the school's agenda and to pursue it the following activities have been conducted in the second quarter. The objective behind these is to equip the students with the skills required for developing a confident and impressive personality.

Watch & Whip Competition

A watch and whip competition was held on 19th August. The game was based on memory power wherein the teams were shown some objects for a minute and after a while they would write the enumeration.

Poetry Recitation

In order to encourage presentation skills and acquaint the students with the poetic essence of literature, Gujarati and English poetry recitation competitions were organised on 22nd August and 8th September respectively.

Elocution

An elocution competition promoting speech skills in Hindi was also organized on 1st September. Signifying the importance of the Hindi language and its richness, 14th September was observed as the Hindi Divas.

School Trip

Taking time off the routine schedule, a school trip was taken up on 28th and 29th August. The places of visit included the Parnera Fort, Khanvel Resort near Silvassa, Daman Ganga River at Dudhni and Tithal Beach near Valsad.
